GOD SAVE CROATIA

“... Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.”
Mark 16.15

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings from beautiful Croatia! Glory to God I'm back home!

It sure was great to be in the States for a while, to see my parents, and to visit so many churches, and catch up with good friends!

I was blessed to come home and find everything around the house in perfect working order. I'm thankful for the Winkler family keeping an eye on everything while I was gone.

The Lord truly blessed this furlough in a great way. He kept me safe for all 20,000 miles of the driving and enabled me to meet so many new pastors and churches. I am truly thankful for every blessing.

I arrived in the States back in May with the fewest number of booked appointments ever, yet through dropping in and getting called back, I ended up with more meetings than ever before. It was wonderful to see God work in such a way!

I've spent the last week trying to recover from jet lag. The trip home is always physically the hardest. I'm not sure why. It must have something to do with losing all those hours on an overnight flight, while not being able to sleep on airplanes.

It's been fun to get back in the groove of translating for Brother Winkler as he preaches. I really enjoy doing that, and I'm looking forward to seeing what God will do in growing our people and our church.

I am excited to start the Bible mailing project back up next week. A number of churches have gotten in on supporting that effort and I can't wait to see what God is going to do as we saturate Croatia with God's Word and Gospel Tracts.

The first "Free Bible" ad will be placed in the top northwest corner of the country around a major city named Pula. Then the plan is to keep ads running regularly as we march our way across the entire country. It's going to be glorious!

God's Word is still quick and powerful, and I would sure love to see Him set this country on fire for Jesus! What a blessing that would be!

Thank you so much for all your support, whether financial, or through prayer and encouragement. Without you, this would not be possible. Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing.
